

Return rules for book wholesalers

General information on returns of books via Booxpress

- These rules apply to the entire return process between dealers and Libri.
- All returned books should be addressed to Libri's logistics location in Bad Hersfeld.
- Very important: senders need to pay postage fees.
- If possible, please use Libri's reusable containers (totes).
- Each package should be accompanied by a separate, fully completed return form.
- If books are returned due to Libri delivery errors or due to publisher's faults, please also use one return label per book and fill it in properly. Please download the return form and return label from:
<https://www.libri.de/en/downloads/> (Business and Information)
- Please note that all other labels need to be removed.
